THE GLIEBERMANS

BERNARD GLIEBERMAN CHAIRMAN

The Gliberman's are third and fourth-generation builders. Bernard is sole owner and president of several companies engaged in real estate development and headquartered at 7380 Meadowridge Circle in West Bloomfield, Michigan. He has become one of Michigan's best-known and respected builders and developers, building more than 5,000 homes, plus some 1,200 condominiums, more than any other condominium developer in the state. He was recently named Builder of the Year Southeast Michigan, by the National Home Builders Association Local Chapter.

Mr. Gliberman is first and foremost a "deal maker", who has a genius for putting together the right group of people and orchestrating the most financing for a project. Creativity and innovation are strong points; Mr. Gliberman has been known to develop new concepts in financing when traditional ones were not adequate. The Small Business

Administration's first guaranteed lease for commercial building in the State of Michigan and the "West Pocket Renewal Program" for neighborhood rehabilitation he created for Detroit are cases in point.

As the Director of Marketing for Crosswinds Communities Inc., and prior to becoming President of The Rough Riders, Lonie Gliberman was involved with his father in several major development projects: Greenpointe at Copper Creek in Farmington Hills, 136 condominium units, built on the south side of 13 Mile Road between Halstead and Haggerty roads; Greenpointe Condominiums in West Bloomfield, 438 units, on north side of 14 Mile Road at Halstead. The $50 million development sold out in September, 1989, in record time; and Millpointe of Westland, 332 single family homes.

BEGINNINGS AND BACKGROUND:

Mr. Gliberman Sr. has been tending to business and building since the early days of his youth, starting out at age ten selling newspapers; later cutting lawns and holding other after-school jobs.

At age 17, after the death of his father, he was thrust into the position of managing property left by his father. The prospect of attending college faded quickly, but young Bernie later attended evening classes in business and accounting at Detroit Institute of Technology as demands on his time permitted.

At age 21, he became full partner in Gil Investment Company of Detroit, engaged in purchase, development and management of all kinds of apartments, single-family homes, theaters and other property.

In 1970, at age 31, he bought-out the interest of his partners and took the company into the building business, starting with scattered site construction in Detroit, Inkster, Plymouth, Clinton Township, Troy and Warren.

The company progresses into building subdivisions of conventional and panelized construction and modular homes in Canton (Springtree) and West Bloomfield and into industrial projects.

Mr. Gliberman's first condominium developments were in Clinton Township, followed by others in Farmington, West Bloomfield and Novi, where his Crosswinds West development gave its name to his present corporation.

The company at one time owned the Broderick Tower, one of Detroit's most imposing office buildings, and a number of movie theaters. Mr. Gliberman's Crosswinds companies employ about 50 persons, including his son, Lonie, who "dug his way out of the trenches" to work with his dad full-time in March 1991. The younger Gliberman's varied part-time experiences with Crosswinds included digging trenches at company building sites.

Bernard Gliberman is a member of the National Association of Home Builders, serving for the past six years as a national director.

A member of the Builders Association of Southeast Michigan for twenty years, Mr. Gliberman has been a board member and Vice-President of the organization for years. Bernie currently serves as Executive Vice President and was voted in as President for 1992.

Other memberships include: Tam-O-Shanter Country Club in Orchard Lake, Economic Club of Detroit, Founders Society of the Detroit Institute of Arts, Classic Car Club of America and Michigan, Mercedes Benz Club of America and Antique Automobile Club of America.

Lonie Gliberman, on the other hand, is an avid skier who enjoys playing golf and softball, and watching football. As a fan he has followed the CFL for most of his life and now is committed to making football thrive once again in the Nation's capital. His father, also a golfer, is known as one of the foremost authorities in classic and antique Mercedes Benz automobiles. He has assembled one of the world's most significant collections of Mercedes Benz automobiles, including a one-of-a-kind 1939 Short Chassis, Special Roadster.

Bernard "Bernie" Gliberman was born September 23, 1939, in Detroit, Michigan, the third generation of a builder family. His father, Louis, was a builder and real estate developer. His grandfather was a commercial builder.

Lonie Gliberman was born February 1, 1968, also in Detroit. He is a graduate of Michigan State University where he studied tele-communications.

Bernie and his wife Sandee also have a daughter, Tracy, who attends Syracuse University.

JOHN RITCHIE VICE-CHAIRMAN

From January, 1986, to September, 1987, John Ritchie was the President and CEO of Drummond Brewing Company Ltd., where he again was successful in turning a losing venture in to a profit making enterprise. He renamed the company; repositioned the entire product line; introduced five new products; and increased market share from 5% to 15% in the premium beer category.

Prior to joining the Drummond Brewing Company, Mr. Ritchie was the Vice President and Partner of Corpsport International from November, 1983, until December, 1985. Corpsport managed the marketing affairs of such sport luminaries as Wayne Gretzky, Steve Podborski, Lanny Mac Donald, Willy De Wit and Dick Zokol.

He coached the famous Crazy Canucks which included the likes of Steve Podborski, Ken Read, David Murray, Dave Irwin and Todd Brooker. During his tenure the team won 13 World Cup Races, a World Cup Championship and an Olympic Medal.

Prior to 1974, John Ritchie worked three years for Head Ski Company where he organized and managed Head's Pro Racing Team; worked on product research and development; and promoted and managed the Head Summer Ski Camp in Soalbach, Austria.
